

Q3 2026 Operations Report

Baltic Fresh Foods Ltd. · Prepared by: Helena Lindqvist, Chief Operating Officer · Issued: 5 October 2026

1. Executive overview

The reporting period runs from 1 July 2026 to 30 September 2026. Revenue reached EUR 4,850,000, up 6% on the previous quarter, and operating costs were EUR 3,920,000. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots.

2. Logistics

Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots.

3. Partners

Our refrigerated warehousing partner, Northern Cold Chain AB, extended the framework agreement until 2028. Marek Nowicki, Head of Logistics, coordinated the depot consolidation. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots.

4. Investments

Capital expenditure in the quarter amounted to USD 310,000, mostly for temperature sensors and two electric vans. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots.

5. Outlook

The next operating review is scheduled for 15 December 2026. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots. Cold-chain utilisation stayed above target for the whole quarter, while fuel surcharges eased after August. The team completed the migration of route planning to the new telematics platform and retired two legacy depots.